

Salem, Oregon
June 7, 2012

OTE's governing Council will meet at the agency's Salem headquarters on Tuesday, June 19, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. The meeting is open to the public. The Council will convene in the OTE boardroom at 1500 Liberty St. SE, Suite 150, Salem, OR, 97302.

On the agenda for discussion:

- Highway business sign permit fee reorganization; staff reports and customer input
- CEO reports: Council recruitment process
- Public comment

OTE is a semi-independent state agency rooted in transportation. We help motorists make all-important connections to businesses, local communities and essential services through our signs and promotional programs. We help communities partner with a unique state agency and solve critical problems which affect all Oregonians and travelers. We help enrich the hearts and minds of our public through heritage programs and help maintain important cultural and historical icons.

Public comment may be accepted during the meeting. For more details or a copy of the agenda as it is finalized, please contact OTE Communications Officer Madeline MacGregor, 503-373-0090 or by email.

For disabled accommodations, please contact Jenn Smith, the Council Assistant, at least 48 hours in advance. 503-373-0155 or via email.
